

CLARK-CLAUDON VINEYARDS

2019 Estate Wines A Legendary Vintage & Final Hurrah

In 1974, serendipity brought us to the Napa Valley to raise our family and join a cadre of enthusiastic young people. Through vision, hard work and comradery, Napa Valley grew into one of the finest wine growing areas in the world. Serendipity smiled on us again in 1989 when a beautiful piece of Napa Valley land found us. It became part vineyard, part Wildlife Reserve and a place for family joy and visiting with friends.

Napa Valley Vintners has called 2019, “A Legendary Vintage.” Is that serendipity again? As the last vintage for Clark-Claudon Vineyard, it is certainly legendary for us. We couldn’t ask for more as our final hurrah!

REVIEW: Ripe blackberries and plums with some sweet vanilla and chocolate. Roasted almonds and wet earth too. Full-bodied with bright acidity and a grip of chewy tannins on the long finish. Yet, despite the tannins, it remains succulent and plush, but needs some time to soften. Try from 2023. James Suckling 95pts

REVIEW: Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2019 Eternity comes bounding out of the glass with exuberant scents of warm cassis, baked plums and stewed blackberries, with hints of fruitcake and exotic spices. Full-bodied, opulent, and super concentrated, with plush tannins and sweet, spicy black fruits, it finishes long and fantastically showy. Wine Advocate 95+pts
