

2020 Wild Iris Sauvignon Blanc
A Celebration of Resilience, Love & Gratitude

THE STORY

As Wild Iris began her growing season in the Spring of 2020, little did she know how fitting her name would be. As the hot wind and wildfires of late summer approached, she hid her beautiful clusters beneath the canopy of leaves. Thankfully, our harvest crew heroes arrived and saved her before she was engulfed in the ensuing smoke.

As our only surviving wine of 2020, Wild Iris proudly carries the Clark-Claudon banner.

WINEMAKER NOTES

The 2020 Wild Iris is a joyful wine, perfect for celebrating resilience, friendship, and gratitude. Its golden wheat hue leads to aromas of peaches and pears, followed by a rich mouth feel, expansive fruit flavors and delightful crispness. This all leads to a mouth-watering finish and a satisfied smile!
